

I Want You

I want You
Oh I want to be awakened
By the stirring of Your Spirit
And the passion of Your heart

Come to me
Won't You breathe upon me now
Revive the fire and the hunger
The desire of my heart

Don't delay Lord
Don't withhold Your blessing
You have promised to reward all those who seek Overwhelm me
Captivate my heart
Let all deceptions and distractions fall away

*'Til You are all in all
Reigning in my heart
Reigning in my life
Jesus have Your way
I surrender all
Fall down at Your throne
Worship at Your feet
You are everything*
