

Soften My Heart

Soften my heart that I may know
The love You have for me
More than words or well-worn phrases
Soften my heart for love to grow
The love I have for You
That keeps my motives pure and blameless

*Enter in, come and have free reign
As I walk with You today
Risen Lamb, Holy One
Overshadow me today*
