

Stepping Out

We're on a journey of faith
Sometimes the way ahead is clear
Sometimes it's clouded
But promises are spoken
Your path ahead is mapped out
Will you choose to trust Him
Or choose to not
Are you ready to believe?

He knows you, He made you
He loves you and knows what's best
Nothing in all creation is hidden from Him, He is watching
Nothing in all creation is hidden from Him, He is listening

*Gonna Fix my eyes on the one
Who's gone before me
Consider Him who was tempted in every way
He knows my weakness
Gonna run the race marked out for me
Not in my own strength
But holding on to the promises he has said
(No I won't worry about what tomorrow brings
He who promised is faithful
And my Father knows my needs)
I'm stepping out of the boat*

God is calling a people of faith
Who see the world as He sees
Who hear His word and believe
No matter how they feel
The truth is living in us
And we read of a God who is full of
The possible and impossibilities

Will You step out and live life to the full?
Without doubt His grace is there for you
Nothing in all creation is hidden from Him, He is watching
Nothing in all creation is hidden from Him, He is listening
